Dear Travel Agent,

United to Introduce Daily Service from Hong Kong to Tokyo in October

United Airlines today announced the launch of daily service between Hong Kong and Tokyo/Narita effective October 31, 2011, subject to government approval. The new service, to be operated by Continental Airlines, will be the first expansion of the new United's operations in Hong Kong since the merger in 2010.

The new nonstop service to United's hub at Tokyo Narita Airport also gives passengers direct access to many more destinations including Honolulu, Guam, Los Angeles, Seattle and Houston. The service adds the second direct service from Hong Kong to New York.
